

Air Force

The Air Force's unique mission spans operations, logistics, ISR, cyber and IT technology capabilities. Supporting this mission requires comprehensive understanding of the Air Force and its supporting and partner entities, and strong relationships with key decision-makers throughout.

The Air Force Team at The Spectrum Group (TSG) delivers to our clients our experience successfully partnering with and serving at the most senior levels of the Air Force and the Department of Defense. Our Team's expertise helps our clients strategically plan and meet business objectives involving Air Force requirements, the acquisition process, and lifecycle systems management.

Our Team's global experience spans senior leadership in the Air Force, Air Force Reserve, and Air National Guard forces, as well as senior executive roles for major defense, aerospace, and Air Force contractors. From Air Mobility and Air Combat Operations, ISR, homeland defense, and special operations, to space operations and cybersecurity, our Air Force Team helps our clients meet their goals.

Our mission is our clients' success. To learn more and to meet our Air Force Team, please visit: www.spectrumgrp.com.
