Professional Experience

Colonel Littig supports clients in efforts requiring federal government relations, using his extensive experience in a variety of positions directly involved with Congressional funding. He is a registered lobbyist with a current Top Secret security clearance.

In the private sector, Colonel Littig's experience spans helping clients pursue and win opportunities in compartmented National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) programs, helping clients navigate commercial air traffic control systems in the Republic of Georgia, and supporting clients in developing underwater transport for special operations. He previously served as the Director of Government Affairs for Northrop Grumman and for Westinghouse.

Before joining The Spectrum Group, Colonel Littig served as a senior aide to the Secretary of the Army. Significantly, he also served as Chief Legislative Liaison for the Army to the House of Representatives, where he led more than 40 delegations to 62 countries on five continents in support of fact-finding and national defense objectives. He maintains strong relationships with Congressional members and staff.
